

Cincinnati Pops Orchestra Comes to Troy

A summertime tradition, The Cincinnati Pops Orchestra conducted by Vince Lee, will present “Celebrate America” on the Public Square in downtown Troy, Ohio on Friday, July 1 at 8:00 p.m. Vocal soloist will be Julie Spangler and instrumental solos will be performed by members of the orchestra. The program will feature American classics like John Philip Sousa’s “The Picadore March”, musical selections from movie hits like “Pirates of the Caribbean and “Superman”, Broadway classics from “Annie Get Your Gun” and a bit of rock and roll including “YMCA”. The “Stars and Stripes Forever” final will conclude this star spangled evening.

During the concert intermission, The Troy Area Chamber of Commerce will recognize both an individual and an organization for their outstanding contributions to the Troy community with the 2011 Community Service Awards. The Troy Foundation will present the individual chosen with a $1,000.00 check to donate to the charity of his or her choice and will present the organization chosen with $1,000.00 to assist with their program funding.

In case of rain, the concert will take place at the Troy Christian High School auditorium, 700 S. Dorset Road.

This concert is co-sponsored by The Troy Foundation and The City of Troy and is free and open to the public. Anyone wishing to make a tax deductible donation to help defray concert expenses may do so by making a check payable to The Troy Foundation and mailing it to Cincinnati Pops Concert, 216 W. Franklin St., Troy OH 45373.
