HOBART INSTITUTE OF WELDING TECHNOLOGY FUNDED SCHOLARSHIPS

Hobart Institute of Welding Technology (HIWT) is pleased to make three scholarships available to qualified individuals in the names of three outstanding individuals: Howard B. Cary, Raymond C. Dunlavy, and Robert Bercaw. Each scholarship is for the HIWT Structural Welding Program, a twenty-four week program. The value of each scholarship is the cost of the tuition for this program. Based on your preference, this scholarship may also be applied toward the forty week Combination Structural & Pipe Welding Program.

In addition, HIWT is pleased to make available, one Hobart Institute of Welding Technology scholarship in recognition of Andre A. Odermatt and seven additional Hobart Institute of Welding Technology Scholarships. These scholarships are in the amount of $5,000 each.

All of the above scholarships are funded by HIWT through The Troy Foundation. The Troy Foundation Selection committee is responsible for selection of recipients.

The scholarships must be applied toward tuition at HIWT. They cannot be applied to room, board, equipment, books, or supplies. The eight scholarships will be awarded once each year to eight individuals who meet the criteria set forth by the HIWT Board of Directors. The scholarships must be used within one year of the date of award.

Guidelines for all Scholarships:

This application is for all of the scholarships listed previously. You complete this application one time in order to be considered for all scholarships that you are eligible for.

Once a selection is made for a scholarship, the recipient will be notified in writing by The Troy Foundation. If the recipient does not accept the award, the next most qualified individual will be awarded the scholarship, as determined by the Selection Committee. Any unused scholarship money must be returned to the fund for use by future recipients.

All HIWT rules and regulations, pertaining to students, must be adhered to by the scholarship winners. Failure to do so may result in dismissal from school and cancellation of the award.

HIWT will not discriminate on the basis of handicap, race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or age in rewarding these scholarships.
